RED STAMPS SELLING.

The sale of the Red Cross Christmas seals is progressing rapidly, and according to a report given out by James A. Rath, who is the local agent for the stamps, the total receipts of the sales to date is over $2800. Besides being placed on sale in the various business houses throughout the city, a large number of the seals have been sent to the different islands, and in the last mail, ten dollars was received from Hawaii. Mr. Rath is of the opinion that the entire number of seals will be sold by Christmas time.

When the United States Geodetic Survey steamer Patterson arrives in Hawaiian waters, that vessel will be found to have a first-class wireless equipment. It is stated that the delay in the installation of the apparatus has resulted in a delay in sailing from Puget Sound. The prediction is made that this vessel may remain in the islands for the better part of the winter months.

Figures from the official publications of 70 leading countries of the world show a great increase in international commerce in 1912 over 1910. The total for 1912 is computed at $35,000,000,000 as against $17,000,000,000 in 1910.

Correct Picture Framing

Pictures, above all things, indicate the degree of refinement in a home. Their influence is most subtle.

The choicest gift you can make to a friend—or to yourself—is a well-chosen picture, harmoniously framed.
